Daytime Office Hours: Faculty must be available to students and advisees for all five posted Office Hours.

Break: Faculty should NOT use Break to meet with students. Break is an essential time away from screen-based communication and learning.

Faculty Collaboration: These blocks are set aside for faculty to engage in independent and/or collaborative curriculum development and class preparation.

Evening Office Hours (not shown): Just as we expect faculty to be available for help outside of the class day when students are on campus, faculty will be required to choose one academic evening (8:00 pm to 9:00 pm) for Evening Office Hours. Faculty will communicate the selected day to their students.

Ensembles (not shown): Students will be notified by their ensemble director what the new expectations will be for their continued engagement in their musical development.
